Maiden, Mother, Crone: Honoring The Sacred Rites Of Passage

Your Guide: Jennifer

We are constantly moving through cycles of becoming, creating, releasing, and remembering. Yet in modern life, many of our most profound transitions are left unacknowledged and unsupported.

In this workshop, we will explore the archetypal journey of the Maiden, Mother, and Crone, and the sacred rites of passage woven throughout a woman's life. From menarche and motherhood to menopause and beyond, we will look at how these thresholds invite us to shed old identities, step into new versions of ourselves, and claim the wisdom each stage offers.

Blending ancient archetypal wisdom with reflection, ritual, and embodied exploration, this workshop invites you to honor the woman you have been, the woman you are becoming, and the wise woman who is always waiting within.

Connecting with Hathor in Modern Practice Through Ancient Traditions

Your Guide: Sarah

Step into the Chapel of Hathor at the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and discover what ancient offerings, artifacts, and symbols reveal about the goddess and those who worshipped her.

Drawing on archaeological work with the Polish-Egyptian Expedition to Deir el-Bahari, this workshop explores Hathor's worship, symbolism, and sacred traditions through excavation photographs, artifacts, and stories from the Hathor Cult Complex.

Advanced Shadow Work

Your Guide: Bryan

Step beyond the basics of shadow work in this focused, 60-minute experiential ritual. Using shamanic drumming, low-frequency singing bowls, and targeted acoustic techniques, you'll enter a receptive Theta brainwave state and safely connect with a specific aspect of the subconscious. Through guided somatic meditation, you'll explore where a hidden emotion or trait may be held in the body, then use a tarot card, rune, or charm as a symbolic bridge for intuitive dialogue with your shadow aspect. The ritual concludes with high-frequency chimes and a simple 24-hour integration plan to help you carry the experience forward.

Some familiarity with shadow work is helpful, but this workshop is open to all levels. Please note that this is a deeper, experiential ritual designed to take you beyond intellectual exploration and into direct connection with the subconscious.

Circlecraft: Beyond The Script

Your Guide: Nadine

Most witches begin by following rituals written by someone else. But deeper magick begins when you understand the principles behind ritual well enough to create your own.

In this workshop, we'll explore the foundations of Circlecraft, including intention, the elements, magical tools, energy raising, and sacred structure, while introducing the principles of creating living ritual through Intuitive Witchcraft. You'll discover how to move beyond prescribed formulas and begin crafting circles, ceremonies, and spellwork that respond to the energy of the moment and reflect your own unique magickal practice.

Rather than leaving with another ritual to memorize, you'll leave with a deeper understanding of the essential ingredients of ritual and the confidence to weave them together with intention, creativity, and intuition.

This workshop is for witches, priestesses, and soul-led space-holders who are ready to move beyond the script, deepen their practice, and create living magick that is uniquely their own.

Beyond Spiritual Hygiene

Your Guide: Carolina

Not everything you experience belongs in your energetic space.

Have you ever walked into a room and immediately felt different, left a conversation feeling drained, or carried the energy of an experience with you long after it ended? In this one-hour introductory workshop, explore spiritual hygiene as a practical approach to maintaining your energetic and spiritual well-being, not only after difficult experiences, but before, during, and after them.

We'll explore how environments and interactions can affect us, the difference between preparation, protection, and cleansing, and why spiritual hygiene can be valuable even when nothing feels "wrong." You'll learn simple ways to build intentional hygiene practices into the spiritual work you already do, whether you work with ancestors, practice ritual, read cards, develop your intuition, meditate, or simply become more aware of your surroundings.

We'll also explore what to do after experiences that leave you feeling heavy or unsettled, while approaching spiritual hygiene without fear or assuming every uncomfortable feeling is supernatural. This is about learning to pay attention, move through experiences intentionally, and reset your energetic space.

Through the Witch's Eye: Hag Stones & Folk Protection

Your Guide: Naomi

Join Naomi of Cohesive Intentions for an immersive workshop exploring the folklore and protective magic of hag stones, naturally formed stones believed to guard against ill fortune, reveal hidden worlds, and watch over the home. Together we'll uncover the rich history behind hag stones, the protective symbolism of red thread, and the magic of skeleton keys as guardians of thresholds. Then you'll create your own handcrafted protection talisman, knotting intention into every strand and blessing it with a traditional-inspired protection chant you can continue to use long after the workshop ends.

Whether you're new to folk magic or a seasoned practitioner, this workshop offers a beautiful way to connect with ancestral traditions while crafting a meaningful talisman for your home or sacred space. You'll leave with a handcrafted hag stone protection talisman, an understanding of the folklore behind each element, a traditional-inspired protection chant, and practical folk magic you can incorporate into your everyday practice.

Sarah Fortune

Egyptologist & Head Curator

Sarah Fortune has been working in Egypt as an Egyptologist since 2008 with the Polish-Egyptian Mission at Deir el-Bahari at the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, as well as with the Asasif Project in Luxor.

As the Inventory and Database Curator for both archaeological projects, Sarah oversees the systematic organization, cataloguing, photography, and documentation of artifacts uncovered during each excavation season.

This work provides a unique opportunity to study the objects left behind by the people who carried out rituals dedicated to ancient gods and goddesses, including Hathor, as well as the ritual objects placed with those buried at these ancient sites.
