Vendor Agreement – Enchanted Holiday Market

1. I give Mary Vivilecchia of Luna Events permission to use photos taken at the show for Facebook, Instagram, and the Luna Events website.
2. The date and time of event is Saturday December 5th from 11:00AM to 4:00PM.
3. Vendor set-up begins at 9:30 AM on Saturday December 5th. Vendors must be fully set up by 10:45 AM sharp. No late set-ups will be permitted. Please allow yourself adequate time for arrival and setup. No refunds or credits will be issued for missed setup.
4. Displays must remain within the vendor's allotted space and must not obstruct the view of neighboring booths. Nothing may be attached to walls, floors, or fixtures with nails, screws, tape, or any other material that could cause damage. Vendors are responsible for the cost of any damages.
5. Vendors understand that it is also their responsibility to promote the event. Luna Events requires that all vendors actively share and advertise the market.
6. Liability insurance is recommended. No insurance coverage is implied or provided by the Enchanted Holiday Market, Luna Events Canada, or the venue.
7. Vendors understand that Mary Vivilecchia of Luna Events Canada and the host venue, Royal Canadian Legion – Branch 234, will not be held responsible for any losses, injuries, or damages during the event.
8. After unloading, vendors must move their vehicles away from the doors to allow attendees closer parking access.
9. Each booth is designated for one vendor only. Booth sharing between two or more vendors is not permitted. Each vendor must register and book their own space.
10. Each booth includes two chairs. Vendors are responsible for bringing their own tables (unless rented in advance), linens, and materials. Booths must be staffed at all times.
11. One table per booth only. If you require a second table, please notify the organizer at the time of booking (additional charges may apply). Due to limited space, unapproved extra tables will not be permitted. Card readers may use a small (2 ft) table behind their booth for readings.
12. Early take-downs are not permitted before 4:00 PM. In case of emergency, please notify Mary.
13. Vendors are responsible for removing all garbage and belongings from their space before leaving.
14. Vendors selling Tarot/Oracle decks must ensure all decks are authentic. Counterfeit decks are strictly prohibited and may be removed from the market.
15. Markets will run unless there is a full Covid-19 shutdown preventing the event. If restrictions are in place but the market is still allowed to operate, the event will proceed and booth fees remain non-refundable.
16. Once a booth space is accepted and paid for, the fee is non-refundable. If the market cannot run due to unforeseen circumstances, a credit will be issued for a future date. If a vendor is ill or unable to attend, it is the vendor's responsibility to arrange coverage for their booth. Otherwise, the space and payment will be forfeited.

17. Luna Events reserves the right to reschedule a market due to unavoidable circumstances such as severe weather, venue closure, or public health restrictions. Payments will be transferred to the rescheduled event. Luna Events is an inclusive organization and will only postpone events if mandates or restrictions prevent full participation by vendors and attendees.
18. Luna Events does its best to minimize product overlap; however, some overlap may occur given the size of the market.
19. Food vendors must have an up-to-date health report and are responsible for notifying Public Health of their participation. Proof of your health report must be submitted at the time of booking and kept with you during the market. Failure to provide proof may result in fines, which will be the vendor's responsibility.
20. Booth assignments are based on receipt of a completed registration form and full payment, in the order they are received.

♥ Remember to always have fun, support one another, and be kind. ♥

By submitting payment, I confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to all of the above conditions. Vendor Initials: _____
