Who I am is a Light Being, here for the collective ascension to a higher consciousness of light; the nature of how we exist is via vibration and frequency, the physical timelines of our reality are an effect we each create individually and collectively because of the Light we (sub) consciously align and allow through us. ### Bryan Stafford: Grey Witch / Intuitive Reader

Bio: Bryan is an empathic and an intuitive secular practitioner with many years experience with metaphysical workings, including tarot readings. Tarot started for me fairly early in life. At the age of twelve I was gifted my first set of cards. It was a Rider-Waite-Smith deck from someone who did not want them anymore. It was an energetic and emotional connection from the start, almost as if the energy of the deck had somehow found their way to me as their intended new owner. Over the years that followed, a bond and relationship with the cards was created and a fascination with the tarot emerged from within. Learning the meanings and messages of each of the 78 cards of the traditional tarot deck, and using specific spreads for interpretation, I gave myself self-readings regularly. Over time, I realized how helpful tarot readings had become to myself, I wanted to help others to experience the same personal insight for their own personal situations in their lives.
